LUMBAR BAND

"...Our body is like a whole symphony orchestra.
No part of it - organ, tissue or cell - can play by itself, ignoring the others. Like an orchestra all the organs, all the tissues, all the cells are an integral part of a very complex living organism, that first of all needs harmony..."

Renal Wellness is thought to yield wellbeing in one of the most stressed body zones; the lumbar band has 3 MicroCleanergy that work for the balance of basal chakra and ming men chakra. The equilibrium and wellness of these structures cause the wellbeing of the whole body:
a strong basal chakra reveals a strong body;
a ming men constantly hyperactive reveals a body under stress.

The lumbar band Renal Wellness help these two structures to recover and preserve their natural equilibrium.
